

Our New President

The new president is Barack Obama. Him and his family moved into the White House on January 20th, 2009. He is the first African-American man to become president. He is also the 44th president of the United States of America.

Obama promises to make more jobs for people. In his speeches, Obama also said that he will try to tie our education with China's school. He will also try to stop war. He will try to do his best and will try to help us solve the economic crisis.

I hope Obama will also enjoy being our president. Obama also gives our country hope.
