

Barack Obama our 44th president is our first African-American president. He's black and handsome. Obama said that he wants to end war because then soldiers in our city, state, and country can live peacefully instead of losing their lives in war.

I really enjoy having Obama as president. He is very helpful to end war. Obama's father is from Kenya, Africa. His father was an immigrant and his mother was an American. From this day on, we are lucky to have Obama as our 44th president.

I think that when Obama dies we are still going to remember him as our super good president. Obama lives with his wife Michelle Obama and his 2 daughters. I think that Obama's Inauguration speech was great!
