

Our New President

I think that Obama is just like a normal person. He makes mistakes like a normal person. During the Inauguration, he made a mistake. He also disagrees with other people. He thought that he should raise taxes.

Obama is our new president. Joe Biden is our new vice president. Obama lives at the white house now. It is located in Washington D.C. There is a wonderful chef in the white house. Obama is very lucky to live in the white house.

Obama will stop the war in Iraq. He said that in a speech. I am very happy he will end this war. War is bad. The world should be full of peace. Not violence and fighting. Martin Luther King made a speech about violence. It was his dream speech. I think Obama was inspired by his words.

President Barack Obama is married to Michelle. Obama was at work and he fell in love with her. soon after, they got married. Barack and Michelle Obama have two children. One girl is named Malia. The other is named Sasha. Sasha is ten years old. and Malia is seven years old.

Sasha and Malia are normal kids. Even though their father works in Washington D.C. They still go to school like my classmates and I. They have friends too and like to listen to the Jonas Brothers.
