

I have a dream - a dream that will change the world! My dream is to stop all wars. Wars make people die, create sadness and make people angry - very angry. It is so sad to see people dying away. George Bush is so silly to create war. Ways I could help end the war is by putting signs up on the street about the war, telling Obama my opinion, and by making people agree with my idea to form a group, which has more power to help others.

Putting signs up on the streets of New York City is a great idea. People will agree with my idea. On my signs, there has to be a lot of details, so I will tell them the reasons why wars are bad. Putting on pins that tell ways to stop the war. That would make the world a better place to live.

Another excellent way to stop the war is by giving Obama my opinion. A boy who got paid few money asked Obama "Is there any way to make our salaries higher?" I will ask Obama "Is there any way to stop the war with Iraq?" The ~~U.S~~ U.S is working hard on the war. Hard enough, that is.

Another great way of stopping the war is by forming a group. Working in a group helps because this way, if one person doesn't have the power of speaking up, another person ~~that~~ that has the power of speaking up could make speeches.

I hope you all agree with me to stop the war. War is so sad. We all hate to continue the war.
