The two Lucky and Friendship 4-Leaf Clovers

Once upon a time, there lived a boy named Tom. He didn't believe that 4 leaf clovers bring good luck, but he loved caves.

The day before St. Patrick's Day, Tom was walking by a forest, when he noticed a cave. He decided to see what was in the cave. When he approached it, he saw it was blocked by a big, green rock, but he saw a lot of clovers. He decided to pick some clovers for St. Patrick's Day. Tom wanted the clovers to be perfect.

Just then, he saw something that caught his eye. He looked closely at his bunch of clovers. Then he realized he was looking at two four-leaf clovers! He was surprised. Not only did he think they didn't bring good luck, but he also thought they didn't exist.

He plucked them and put them in a plastic bag that he had in his right pant's pocket. Then, he headed toward home.

On his way home, he bumped into a boy ~~named~~ named Sam. Sam was new in town. Tom showed Sam what he found. Sam was amazed. He asked "Can I have one?" and Tom said "Sure!" Sam said that they both should make a wish.

After 5 long minutes, he agreed, but he didn't think the wishes would come true. Sam and Tom's wish came true. Sam wanted to become friends. Tom ~~and~~ ~~Sam~~ wanted Sam and his family to have a wealthy life, he also wanted to become friends with Sam.

Soon, Tom believed in the magic of four leaf clovers. Sam and his family had a healthy and wealthy life. As for Tom and Sam, they remained friends forever.
