

THE ATTACK OF THE INSTRUMENTS

Once upon a time there was a kid named Patrick. Patrick is a boy with long curly hair. Patrick is a boy who hates music. One day his mom signed Patrick for music class. On the first day of music class, he burned the musical instruments.

Then the musical instruments came to life and they turned evil. They combined bodies. They chased Patrick around the city. Then he asked the monster "are you thirsty." "Yes" said the monster. So Patrick took the monster to the bathroom, he showed the monster a toilet the monster drank all the water in the toilet.

Then Patrick flushed the toilet and the monster got sucked in. Then Patrick became ~~mad~~ mad, he grew humungous and destroyed the city. Today people hate Patrick so they made a day called St. Patrick's day. They don't like him because he destroyed the city. On that day people play music. They do it to punish Patrick because he destroyed the city.
