

TOM and Sam's Day In March

By Lia Feng

Once upon a time, there lived a lion named Obzy. Every day he took a sheep in the yard and ate it. One clear morning, a girl named Sam went into the cave! The lion roared and made a tornado! she cried and cried and cried and shouted "MOMMY!" The following day, Tom (her brother) went to the yard to look at some sheeps he saw her sister at the cave. He pulled her to look at two sheeps and two clovers, They picked it up. They knew they were really lucky. When Sam saw the sheeps she felt better. After a few days they feel like it's summer "Yeah!" it dosen't feel like a lion anymore! It feels like a lamb! From then on everybody says "March comes in like a ~~lion~~ lion and out like a lamb." And Sam and Tom lived happily ever after.