

The Four Leaf Clover Name: Michael Loh

One day, a boy was looking for a good luck charm. The boy was named Erick. Erick had bad luck. He wished he had good luck. But he did not know what a good luck charm was. So he went to go ask his mom. Luckily his mom knew one good luck charm. A four leaf clover.

Soon Erick found one in the park. He was so happy that he now had good luck. He put it in his pocket. Then he left for school.

Usually he misses the school bus, but today he was ten minutes early. When he got on the school bus was empty, and he sat all the way in the front. At school he had to take a test. Instead of failing he got one hundred percent. At lunch, he thought he was going to be last on the lunch line, but this time he was first.

Erick was in love with his luck. His luck recieved he things he never obtained before. He was so lucky, he was the luckiest kid in his school. He loved the four leaf clover. He was glad he went to the park, and found the four leaf clover.

But then one day a kid stole Erick's four leaf clover. Erick knew he had to get it back. He was not going to give up his luck. Then he saw the kid go to the bathroom. He followed him there. When the kid was not looking, Erick snatched it away from the kid. His luck was safe for now.
